Soup's ON:

I hereby declare that the Soup Season is upon us.

With the cooler weather swooping into the Cleveland area and other parts of the country, now is the time to warm up by making your favorite soup. What better way to enjoy a piping hot pot of nutritious soup than to use my recipe for a quick and easy pot of soup. Check out my website at www.frankherda.com/shorts/index.htm for my recipe.

Commentary/Personal Opinion: The Economy

I've been hearing a lot about how the recession is over and how well the economy is doing.

My reaction to that is "Huh? Who are they kidding? Say what?"!

I mean all you have to do is drive through your city and look at all the vacant building where once thriving business were operating. Have all the people, millions, returned to work? Have the price of food, utilities, prescriptions, and other things you use every day gotten cheaper?

Where are the people that are saying how good things are getting there information? If you believe that just because the stock market has a few good days that everything is rosy, then I got a bridge for sale that you can buy from me.

Also, what happened to the Cost of Living Adjustments? Can "they" really look at you with a straight face and tell you that the cost of living has not gotten higher? Congress and the current administration must be smoking something that I would love to get my hands on.

Projects Updates:

I'm still working on several new books. It's going slower than I would like. Research and other non-literary projects are also taking up a lot of time.
