Spring Quarter-2013

Spring has sprung!

It's getting green out there and the wild flowers are beautiful. All of the animal babies are out to show off.

Note: There was no Fall or Winter newsletter for 2012. I was just too depressed with the loss of my companion Shiloh to do the newsletters.

Events

Obama Inauguration

No, I did not go to the Inauguration for Obama's 2nd term. When the CMOH HQ contacted me, I said that when I met Obama, it would be my duty to place him under arrest for treason. That was the last I heard on the subject. Also, I did not go to Obama's first inauguration.

Bionic Eyes

I had cataract surgery on both eyes. I call them "bionic" eyes as the surgery took care of a number of issues. Sigh, it's hell to get old!

Recommended Reading List for the Quarter

C.E. Murphy – Series: The Walker Papers

No Dominion – The Garrison Report

Mountain Echoes #8 of the Walker Papers.

Faith Hunter – Series: Jane Yellowrock
